CLAIMS - TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES

The process for filing a claim against a household goods carrier and the claims procedures are provided on the website of the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (department), as well as in the department's administrative rule, 43 Texas Administrative Code §218.61 (relating to Claims). A shipper must file any claims against a household goods carrier within 90 days of the delivery of the shipment to the final destination, or after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed in the case of failure to make delivery.

Household goods carriers have 90 days from receipt of a claim to pay, decline to pay, or make a firm settlement offer, in writing, to a claimant. Questions or complaints concerning the household goods carrier's claims handling should be directed to the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV), Enforcement Division, via the toll-free consumer helpline as listed on the department's website. Additionally, a claimant has the right to request mediation from TxDMV within 35 days after any portion of the claim is denied by the carrier, the carrier makes a firm settlement offer that is not acceptable to the claimant, or 90 days has elapsed since the carrier received the claim and the claim has not been resolved.

I certify that the information on this claim is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
